

Preparing Future Faculty (PFF) Application Form

The Preparing Future Faculty (PFF) program is designed to assist graduate students and post-docs planning to become faculty members at the college level with their professional development. The PFF program provides a mechanism by which participants receive a credential which reflects initiative and experience toward becoming future faculty.

To apply, complete the form below and return it with required statement to:

Dr. Michelle L. Hardee, Program Manager
Center for Teaching Excellence electronically: hardeem@mailbox.sc.edu or campus mail: Thomas Cooper Library Room L511, Columbia, SC 29208

For Office
Use Only:
Date submitted:

You may begin participation in PFF at any time; however, it is recommended that applications be submitted early in order to be informed of regular events and activities applicable to the PFF credential.

Questions? 803-777-1975 hardeem@mailbox.sc.edu

1. Personal Information

Name: _____

Address: Street: _____

City: _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone(s): _____

Email: _____

2. Academic Information

USC Major/Discipline: _____

Degree: MS MFA MPH EdD PhD Postdoc Other _____

USC Advisor's Name: _____

Date Started USC Degree: _____ Expected Date of Graduation: _____

3. Faculty Endorsement

Endorsement of a graduate faculty member is required to participate in PFF. Your chosen faculty member should complete the information below in support of your application:

Name: _____

Campus phone: _____ Email: _____

Signature (electronic signatures accepted): _____

4. Statement of Interest

Attach a statement of interest which addresses two things: your career goals and a statement as to why you want to participate in PFF. This statement can be a few paragraphs to no more than 1 page.