

APPLICATION FORM
MICHAEL J. MUNGO SCHOLARSHIP FOR PRE-SEMINARY STUDENTS

Applicants must be South Carolina residents and undergraduates at the University of South Carolina pursuing a program of study in preparation for attending religious seminary (or a similar graduate program). Applicants need not be Religious Studies majors. Recipients may continue to apply in succeeding years. Scholarship will be applied to the student's tuition at USC in the upcoming academic year.

Name _____ USC ID . _____

Address at University _____

Home Address _____

Phone: At University _____ At Home _____

Email: At University _____ At Home _____

Credit Hours Earned _____ Current GPA _____ Intended Date of Graduation _____

Major _____ Cognate or Minor _____

Religious Affiliation _____

Names of seminaries to which you are considering applying:

References. Please list two people who know something of your religious identity and activities (pastor, chaplain, teacher, etc.). Give contact information for each below.

1. Name _____

Address _____

_____ Phone or Email _____

2. Name _____

Address _____

_____ Phone or Email _____

Please attach two one-page statements: • First list (a) your honors and accomplishments; (b) congregation, community, and club activities and leadership roles you held in them; and (c) jobs that you have held.
• Second: State your goals in pursuing seminary education and vocational plans following seminary completion.

Signed _____ Date _____

All materials should be sent by Deadline: May 15.: attached to an email to the Director of Undergraduate Studies– subject: Attention of Mungo Award. (see Religious Studies at USC website: "Our People" Section):

https://sc.edu/study/colleges_schools/artsandsciences/religious_studies/our_people/index.php

Or regular mail:

To: Attention of Mungo Award
Department of Religious Studies
University of South Carolina
Columbia, SC 29208